Shooqib Jawahirul Ma'ani is an Arabic children's literature book written by the Islamic scholar Muhammad Akram Nadwi. It was published in 1984. The author describes his book as follows. The object of the book is to make the reader aware of the many virtues and unusual characteristics of our Holy Prophet (PBUH) , and to instill in him a love for the Prophet (PBUH). To this end ... special emphasis has been given to those virtues and characteristics which particularly appeal to children. The story is told from the point of view of a Quraish boy called Yousuf. The book was first published in 1984. The first edition was published by Darul Kutub International, a publishing house based in India. Since then, the book has been republished many times. There have been at least 13 editions published so far. The latest edition was published in 2008 by Maktaba Rahmania, a publishing house based in Pakistan. In 1990 "Shooqib Jawahirul Ma'ani" became one of the 14 books on Islamic Studies which were recommended for use as reading material at all educational levels by Ministry of Education Malaysia and Ministry of Higher Education Malaysia.
